Dear Miss Leverette:

After a discussion with the Dean about the prospects of attending the meeting of the Southeastern Law Libraries Association in Columbia this coming August, on the basis of your letter of June 2, I must regretfully report that it will not be possible for me to attend the meeting. It follows too closely the Miami meeting. Also it will interfere with our vacation plans in the library.

I am sorry that I have to let you down. Since I have to prepare for the meeting in Miami and I am still working on a manuscript, I cannot even offer to undertake a paper on the treatment of ephemeral materials in law libraries which could be read at your meeting.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Kate Wallach
